OUR FACULTY

First comes Mr. C. O. Duker, our principal, who teaches general business and history, also geography to the seventh grade.

Next is Mr. Dale Wicoff who is in charge of our Vocational Agriculture Department. This year Mr. Wicoff completed his education by getting his master's degree, the second agriculture teacher to do so in Indiana.

Then there is Mrs. Ruth Butler, our Home Economics teacher. She also teaches Biology to the Freshmen.

Mrs. Elizabeth Shull teaches Latin and social studies. She has charge of the girls' physical education classes, too.

Mrs. Bruce Martin teaches typing, shorthand, economics and seventh grade English.

The one new member of our faculty is Mr. Calvin Lessing who teaches physics, algebra, and mathematics.

Then there is Mr. James Tatlock, who teaches English. On alternating years he teaches health and safety. He also teaches physical education and is the coach of the school.

Last but not least is Mrs. Leever, who is in charge of the voice and orchestra in our school. She has charge of the operettas.

Carl Hart teaches the sixth and seventh grades.

Mrs. Violet Baker has charge of the fourth and fifth grades.

Mrs. Ranier teaches the second and third grades.

Mrs. Freida Guilford teaches the first grade.

CLASS OF "49"

The Senior class was organized the third week in September. The class officers are:

President .....	Leona Drake
Vice-President .....	Jack Bowser
Secretary .....	Ruth Creager
Treasurer .....	Wayne Hanna
Sponsor .....	Mr. Tatlock

CLASS MOTTO: NOT FINISHED JUST BEGUN.

CLASS COLORS: Blue and White

CLASS FLOWERS: White and Blue Carnations.

The Seniors were very happy to receive their class sweaters in September, having ordered them in their Junior year.

Their first project was a series of scrap drives on three Saturdays. The boys worked while the girls got "homemade" donuts to eat.

The next project was sponsoring a turkey raffle at the Hicksville game. One turkey wasn't enough to raffle so the generous Seniors raffled two turkeys.

The Seniors have been working on their annual the "49er" for a couple of months and hope it is a success.

The Senior class is planning to give a three-act play "Murder With Orchids" April 29. They are also anticipating having a large scrap drive the last of the year. With the money we have made and hope to make we are planning to go on a class trip after school is out.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Way back in 1937, the "Class of '49" started the long journey for their "gold rush," (education). Four who started at old St. Joe have successfully finished it here. These are Edward Wade, Jack Bowser, Donald Yeiser, and Joan Shuff.

Miss Violet May got our wagon train off to a good start in our first and second grades. Raymond Murphy joined us in the second grade and Leona Drake in the third.

Mrs. Harriet Oberlin took us over in the third and fourth grade. Mr. Roy Maxwell guided us over the mountains of the fifth grade and Mrs. Alice Kagey took us through the plains of the sixth grade, and thus we were half-way over our journey. We started the seventh grade with several new leaders including Mr. Duker, Mrs. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Wicoff, Mr. Maxwell, Miss Pryor, and Mrs. Buckner.

Deloris Keller dropped out in the seventh year but she caught our train again in the tenth, this time to stay. In the eighth year Charlene Arnett, Charlet Jones, and Junior Bassett joined our group.

Our Freshman year started off with many new faces. There were twenty-three of us to be exact, though ours was a smaller class than most; among the new faces who have stayed with us are Joe Harter, Kathleen Smith, Bob Walters, Ruth Creager, Wayne Hanna, Donald Miller, and Irwin Lochner. Mr. Maxwell was our sponsor for this year and the next, too.

Those who joined our train only to drop out along the way are Floyd Baughman, Berta Lou Yeary, James Hardy Mildred Gall, Frances Conners, Delmar Mickelson, Janice Shuff, Joy Worth, Kathryn Likes, Anna Johnston, and Roberta Klink. Edward Wade stayed off our wagon during the Freshman and Sophomore years but came back to finish at St. Joe.

Throughout our eleventh year of the journey Mrs. Butler was our capable sponsor. We had many activities during this year including a hay-ride, box social and a banquet for the Seniors. We also picked up two new leaders Mrs. Martin and Mr. Tatlock.

The starting of our last year must have been tough because we lost four members which is very unusual.

To guide us over the last lap of our journey is Mr. Tatlock who will see us through until we find our "gold" (diplomas) on May twentieth, nineteen hundred and forty-nine.

CLASS PROPHECY

Last night as I sat reading my book "Far Away Places," I became drowsy, fell asleep, and dreamed of the Seniors all in their different roles of life.

At first I was driving along the Old Mohawk Trail of Texas, when, to my great surprise, there loomed before me a mammoth barn and on the barn I read, "Donald Miller & Sons Fordified Ranch."

I then found myself at the race track in Kentucky, where the races were in full swing. "There they go, Underwear in hanging on the rail, Strawberry is in the jam, and here comes the winner-----Beetlebalm. The winner is ridden by none other than that great jockey Donald Yeiser.

I then hopped into my Rolls Royce. As I was slowly cruising along at seventy I heard a familiar voice yell, "Pull over sister!" I applied my brakes, tore off my goggles, and there stood Wayne Hanna, better known as Flatfoot Flanagan.

I then seemed to hear loud cheering in the distance coming from a large gymnasium. To satisfy my curiosity I walked through the door way and came face to face with Leona Drake and Ruth Creager who had organized an all girl basketball team known as the "All American Dribblers."

I then walked down Broadway, bright lights flashing here and there, and as I glanced up a sign caught my eye. "Jack Bowser Ballet Instructor!" Well, what do you know?

As I continued to wander through the city I heard someone on a soap box on a busy corner saying, "Ladies and gentlemen, I am here to address you and not undress you, here before you and not behind you." Lo and behold, the great orator Raymond Murphy! Sitting beside him with her note book is Deloris Keller, his very dependable and efficient secretary.

I then went to a soda fountain in a drugstore and ordered an all nut sundae, when the door swung open and a man came into the store. He is stepping on the scales, weight.....210 pounds, fortune.....danger. Who is it? Joe Harter!:::

As I went dreaming on, a newsboy's shouts reached my ears. I hurriedly bought a paper and glanced at the headlines. It said that Junior Bassett had fallen heir to the Ford Automobile Industry.

As I glanced on through the news another item caught my eye. Bob Walters, one of the greatest daredevil stunt flyers of all times, will soon appear here in the city.

I then wandered through a large department store and sauntered toward the elevator. As I entered, the operator said, "Watch your step, please." The operator was Edward Wade having his ups and downs in life.

I then walked down a beautiful avenue, and my eye caught a lovely white cottage encircled by a white picket fence upon which red roses climbed. As I drew nearer, I saw the owners' name on the gate, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Lochner.

As I went on dreaming I saw a large tent with a crowd of impatient ladies waiting outside. I drew nearer to learn their intentions. To my great surprise there in the tent was Joan Shuff, known as Madame Celeste, gazing into a crystal ball and predicting the future.

I then went in a large skating rink where the band was playing "Waltz Me Around Again Willie." The spotlight was centered on a lovely figure in scarlet velvet, none other than Charlet Jones.

It was evening in New York and I was standing in front of a night club known as "The Flame." Beautiful ladies and their escorts were entering so I thought I would follow the crowd. I was directed to a table and awaited the floor show. The first entertainer was Kathleen Smith who was strictly solid playing "boogie woogie."

The book hit the floor with a bang and I awakened to find it was only a dream, but what a dream!

CLASS WILL

I, Jack Bowser, will my ability to hoot like an owl, and also my ability to keep my pants up without a belt to Bub Richmond.

I, Donald Miller, will my ability to take my shoes off in class, and to skip school to Betty Sipe.

I, Ed Wade, will my ability to filibuster in government class to Maurice Houser, and shrewd way of getting a hair cut during school hours to Jack Kees.

I, Wayne Hanna, will to Wendell Krafft my ability to beat the "cops" to the state line.

I, Don Yeiser, will to Bub Richmond my ability to stay away from women, my way with the police to Ervin Feters, and the good subject physics to the Junior class as a whole.

I, Bob Walters, will to Roger Inlow my ability to get along with Mr. Lessing and all the teachers.

We, Leona Drake and Charlene Arnett, will our way to "get passing grades" in physics class to Audrie Trenary and Amy Wagner.

I, Joe Harter, will my ability to come to school without missing a day, to Munson Baughman.

I, Mike Murphy, will my shyness to the Burns twins.

I, Charlene Arnett, will to Anita McMaken the right to eat pickles and pack at the same time.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 3, 1862. It contains a report on the state of the Union and the progress of the war.

11. The eleventh part is a report from the Secretary of the Public Works, dated February 25, 1862. It contains a statement of the public works and the condition of the public works.

12. The twelfth part is a report from the Secretary of the Public Lands, dated March 1, 1862. It contains a statement of the public lands and the condition of the public lands.

13. The thirteenth part is a report from the Secretary of the Public Buildings, dated March 5, 1862. It contains a statement of the public buildings and the condition of the public buildings.

14. The fourteenth part is a report from the Secretary of the Public Printing, dated March 10, 1862. It contains a statement of the public printing and the condition of the public printing.

We, Charlet Jones and Joan Shuff, will our ability to laugh during all classes to Maurice Houser and Munson Baughman.

I, Junior Bassett, will to Ervin Fetters my ability to stop a car with the brakes and not my foot.

I, Ruth Creager, will my basketball playing ability to Gloria Ferguson.

I, Charlet Jones, will my ability to wear a diamond, third finger, left hand to Lora Reas.

I, Deloris Keller, will my shyness toward the men to Sybilla Klink.

I, Joan Shuff, will my ability to appear at school with bagless eyes, and a good disposition to Paula Harts.

We, Deloris Keller and Ruth Creager, will to Jim Warstler and Jack Hughes our typing table drawers.

I, Leona Drake, will my ability to talk faster than 10 words a minute to Joan Curie.

I, Irwin Lochner, will my place on the first team to Jack Hughes, and my ability to skip school and work to Jim Warstler.

I, Kate Smith, will my bold manner to Walter Crabill, my long hair to Phyllis Surfus, and my ability to wear diamond with no strings attached to Audrie Trenary.

We, the Seniors of '49, will the following to our inspiring teachers:

To Mr. Duker, an Overcoat which cannot be located on the books.

To Mr. Wicoff, we will a ten story shop and $10,000 for new equipment.

To Mr. Tatlock, an experienced basketball team with each and every man over seven feet.

To Mr. Lessing, a gross of gags (and we don't mean laughs) for his third and sixth period study halls.

To Mrs. Martin, a box of 'ever-wearing' chalk and one dozen erasers.

To Mrs. Shull, a small revolver to be used on gum chewers.

To Mrs. Butler, a new, bigger, and better co-operating Junior class.

To Mrs. Leever, a $50,000 Stradivarius Violin.

We, who have notoriously shunned the Honor Roll and continuously plagued the teachers with "I don't know." having minds exceedingly fresh and unburdened with "stuff", a trifle weary from a four-year's sitting within the confines of Concord Township High School, we do make, declare, and publish this, our last will and testament on this 10th day of March in the year nineteen hundred and forty-nine

"CLASS OF 50"

The organization of the Junior class took place the last of September. The following officers were elected:

President ..... Jack Hughes
Vice-President ..... DuWayne Richmond
Secretary and Treasurer ..... Gloria Ferguson

The Junior class is sponsoring the school paper, "Under the Cover." The first issue was put on sale November 5th. The staff is as follows.

Editor-in-Chief ..... Amy Wagner
Assistant Editor ..... Gloria Ferguson
Subscriptions ..... Munson Baughman
Audrie Trenary
Alumni and Teachers ..... Ervin Feters

The class rings were ordered in October, but not received until February 3rd. Everybody was happy to get theirs.

The class sweaters were ordered in February and are to be scarlet and white. The sweaters will arrive the beginning of next year.

The class had their first party at the home of Lora Reas. They ate their potluck supper in candlelight, an exchange was held afterwards.

"CLASS OF 51"

The Sophomore Class was organized in the last part of September. The following officers were elected:

President ..... Carol Coburn
Vice-President ..... Marcia Mertens
Secretary ..... Beverly Ridgway
Treasurer ..... Delores Baker
Sponsor ..... Mrs. Shull

The first activity of the Sophomore Class was a chili supper in the gymnasium, October 15. A large crowd turned out. The class served chili, pie, cake, sandwiches, and home made ice cream. They also had a bake sale afterwards.

A magazine drive was sponsored from November 16th to 19th. The class was divided into two teams with Francis Dulle and Bob Baker as captains. Bob Baker's team won so Francis Dulle's team gave Baker's team a party in the gym December 3.

The class also had another party January 12, in the gym. Since it was a potluck, they had lots of good things to eat.

Juanita Likes, DuWayne Goings, and Marcia Mertens made a very attractive box for the valentine exchange which took place at school. February 14.

"CLASS OF 52"

The Freshman class met in September to elect the following officers:

President ..... Ruth Trenary
Vice-President ..... Wanda Hawk
Secretary ..... Vance Hook
Treasurer ..... Jerry Baker
Sponsor ..... Mr. Lessing

The first Freshman activity was in the "hands" of the Seniors. On September 24 the Freshmen (for some reason unknown came to school dressed up in night-gowns and pajamas. They were painted up by the Seniors, of course, onions put around their necks, and stockings on their heads for the day.

That night they all met in room B and were led downstairs blindfolded one by one for lots of fun. First they were fed a mixture of raw oysters, limburger cheese, and alum, then run barefooted over a ladder, swung in a barrell until nice, and dizzy, and then pushed jaw-breakers across the gym floor with their noses.

Next they were shocked and fed raw eggs, then allowed to take their blindfolds off and watch the rest of the kids. Afterwards they were guests of the Seniors upstairs for hot dogs, potato chips and pop.

The next function was a hayride the night of October 29. A bake sale was held December 4 at the Burgoyne's Store in Auburn. The Freshmen had many fine bake goods for sale and they sold everything by noon, making a nice profit.

"CLASS OF 53"

The eighth grade was organized the last part of September. The following officers were elected:

President ..... JoAnne LaRowe
Vice-President ..... Barbara Hurni
Secretary ..... Neil Wisler
Treasurer ..... Mary Fogle
Sponsor ..... Mrs. Bruce Martin

The first class party was held in November. The gymnasium was occupied so the party was held in the study hall. All the tables were carried out in the hall and games were played.

A date for the second party has not been decided upon.

"CLASS OF 54"

The seventh grade elected officers the last part of September. They are as follows:

President ..... Bruce Baker
Vice-President ..... Connie Fisher
Secretary ..... Donna Wagner
Treasurer ..... Sammy Morr
Seargent At Arms ..... Kenneth Walters
Reporter ..... Leatrice Coburn
Sponsor ..... Mrs. Mildred Leever

The first class party was held in the school gymnasium before Thanksgiving with a pot-luck dinner. Basketball was played for recreation.

The second class party was held in the gymnasium, also. It was held just before Christmas with a very large Christmas tree as the center of attraction. A song-fest was enjoyed by all. Donna Mae Wagner and Connie Fisher entertained with several numbers on their accordions.

The last party was held February 17, with the opening of the Valentine box as the main attraction.

SIXTH GRADE

FIRST ROW: R. Baker, C. Immel, D. Ortiz, R. Fetters, J. LaRowe, P. Hughes, S. Miller, G. Ross, Mr. Hart.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

SIXTH GRADE

The sixth grade was organized in the last part of September. The following officers were elected:

President .....	Gladys Ross
Vice-President .....	Donald Tharp
Secretary .....	Joyce LaRowe
Treasurer .....	Lee Davis
Reporter .....	Glenda Hawk
Sponsor .....	Karl Hart

The first party was held at the home of Gladys Ross before Halloween. Each one came masked. After a lot of guessing everyone unmasked and went to St. Joe in Mr. Hart's truck to participate in the activities in the gym. Everyone returned to the guest's home for refreshments of pop, cider, and popcorn.

The last party was before Valentine's day with many beautiful valentines for all.

The class got together in the Home Economics room at Thanksgiving time with a bountiful repast. Some of the High School teachers were guests of honor.

FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADES

The children of the fourth and fifth grades have engaged in some very interesting projects and occasions this year.

There were several in the room who had leading parts in the Christmas operetta, "Santa Claus," put on by the music classes for the December P. T. A. meeting.

A large number of children are members of the flute class, which meets each Wednesday.

A new project this year for the boys is the gym period, coached by Mr. Hart, which meets each Tuesday, first period.

An interesting project which was new for us this year was book reporting. After the book has been read, a report either written or oral, is given before the room. We have learned to enjoy and appreciate many books in this way.

SECOND AND THIRD

FIRST ROW: N. Kees, A. Harris, M. Baker, M. Weicht, P. Baker, C. Hook, F. Sanchez, G. Ortiz, M. Shuff, G. Jubinville, J. Haverstock, D. Bry.

REPORT OF THE
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
ON THE
THE
U. S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

FIRST GRADE

The re-organization of the grade department was made necessary due to the size of the first grade. Thirty six boys and girls were enrolled, which made conditions such that the second grade was transferred to the next room. At present, thirty-two pupils are in the first grade.

During the year, pupils grow physically, mentally, and socially, especially the two latter. Mentally they grow by learning some of the fundamentals of reading writing, and arithmetic. Socially they become a member of a "school family", which has many more members than the family circle. And when Johnny learns not to cry to often, and Mary learns she must share things with others, they are also growing.

The music program is thouroughly enjoyed by the first grade. The brownies for the Christmas Operetta, "Santa Claus," were mostly from this room as well as, a solo number. The Rhythm Band is composed of first and second graders, who, once a week beat out rhythm in fine style.

---Mrs. Freida Guilford

SECOND AND THIRD GRADE

The second and third grades started the year with forty pupils, eighteen in the second grade and twenty in the third grade.

The second grade has lost two and gained one. The third grade has lost two and gained two. The second grade now has seventeen and the third grade has twenty-two.

Five of the Mexican children are in this room.

The third grade has had several projects in connection with "Living in Country and City."

The second grade children have a Rhythm Band and the following children in the third grade are taking song flutes:

Deloris Davis, Douglas Duker, Donald Donat, Dorothy Bry, Rita Souder, Stephen Harts, Mary Jane Baker, John Garza, Nina Kees, Donald Noragon, Charlotte Coburn, and Darlene Wisler.

The second and third grades make up the greatest part of the "workmen" in the Christmas Operetta. Stephen Harts was the newsboy, Douglas Duker was Jack Frost, and Sharon Kizer sang a solo.

There have been three cases of chicken pox, but on the whole the attendance has been wonderful.

BASKETBALL

The 1948-49 season opened on Friday, November 5th. We played the Waterloo Wildcats on their floor. The final score: Waterloo 37, St. Joe 22.

The Tigers of 48-49 lost ten games before they had a victory. On January 4th, they defeated Scott Center 49 to 31 at St. Joe. Lochner led the scoring for St. Joe with 18 points.

The victory-starved Tigers did not win again until February 18th, and on this date they used twelve men in defeating Springfield Township, 73 to 38. The leading scorer for St. Joe was Richmond with 15 points, however Lochner and Feters each got 12 points.

In the Sectional Tourney St. Joe met Waterloo at Garrett. Waterloo led 39 to 29 at the end of the third quarter, but a spirited rally by the Tigers in the final period almost caught them. Led by Walters, who scored 12 points in the final period and 19 in the ballgame. St. Joe out-scored Waterloo 19 to 10 in the last quarter. Final score: Waterloo 49, St. Joe 48.

The seconds for '48 and '49 won five games and lost fourteen. They defeated the Alumni (over 30 years of age), Scott Center, Woodburn, Pleasant Lake, and Springfield Township.

The following are the scores of this year's games:
